The musical score is written for a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in common time (C) with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The tempo and dynamics are marked with 'f' (forte). The lyrics are: 'Help us, O Lord! Come end our great affliction and break the striker's rod.' The score consists of four systems of staves. The first system shows the vocal parts with lyrics 'Help us, O Lord! Come'. The second system continues the vocal parts with lyrics 'end our great affliction and break the striker's rod.' The third and fourth systems show the instrumental accompaniment, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.
