

Beau-ti-ful crown, Shin-ing so fair,
Beau-ti-ful, beau-ti-ful crown, Shin-ing, yes, shin-ing so fair,

Beau-ti-ful man - sion bright, Gath-er us there.
Beau-ti-ful man - sion bright, yes, gath-er us there.

294. The Pilgrim and the Stranger

"...willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." 2Cor. 5:8

1. The pil - grim and the stran - ger Pur - sues his jour - ney home;
2. The love that earth has giv - en Be - neath the sod is laid;
3. The riv - ers' flood is hur - ried In - to the o - cean wide,
4. 'Tis thus the pil - grim yearn - eth For God's own bliss and peace;
5. And long - ing thus he wan - ders Through-out this vale of tears,

On earth there's toil and dan - ger, In heav'n there's rest a - lone.
He yearns for that in heav - en, For flowers that nev - er fade.
And in its bos - om bur - ied Be - neath the si - lent tide.
In life and joy e - ter - nal! His soul may be at ease.
To reach the home that's yon - der, Where Christ, his life, ap - pears.
