

46. Jerusalem

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem...how often would I have gathered thy children together..." Lk. 13:34

1. 2.

Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem, Once proud-ly throned so high, God's dwell-ing place, His di - a - dem, Be - neath the star - lit sky! Now with thy chil-dren 'neath the curse in bond-age thou must be: Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem, we ev - er weep for thee! Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem, we ev - er weep for thee! Where once the praise of God did sound On Zi - on's ho - ly mount, Thy cower-ing chil-dren now are found; Their bit - ter hours they count. And thou dost sit, and thou dost sit up - on the ground De - grad - ed pit - eous - ly! Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem, till thou at last re - pent,

And to our Lamb, whom thou didst pierce, dost hom-age rev - er - ent—
Till thou dost there, in Him once slain, thine on - ly Sav - ior see!

Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem, we ev - er weep for thee. Je - ru - sa - lem, Je - ru - sa - lem, we ev - er weep for thee! for thee! we ev - er weep for thee! for thee!
